Youth Group Behavior Guidelines

We understand that as Christians (or as representatives of the church) it is our responsibility to show Christ to others through our actions. It is even more essential that we do so, when we are gathered as a group wearing His name. Because of this, we commit ourselves to the following while on this event (#1 for parents #2-10 for teens):

1. I (We) give the sponsors on this trip the right to correct and discipline my (our) child for behavior which is deemed inappropriate in order to promote a good atmosphere for all involved.
2. I will not have alcoholic beverages of any kind in my possession.
3. I will not drink alcohol in any form.
4. I will not use or possess any illegal substances.
5. I will not use or possess and tobacco products.
6. I will not possess any pornographic materials.
7. I will not possess anything that is obviously ungodly in nature.
8. I will not use inappropriate language.
9. I will dress in appropriate and modest clothing.
10. I will do my best to act Christlike in all situations.

If suspicion of any of the above occurs, I give permission for an adult sponsor to search my person, my room, my luggage and/or my personal belongings.

If I am found to be in violation of the above rules, I understand that:

1. As a teen, I will be asked to go home at my parents' expense.
2. As a parent, I agree to bear the expense for my teen to come home.

These guidelines are provided to insure safety and enjoyment for our entire youth group as well as to show Christ to others in a positive light.

This form must be signed by the participating teen and at least one parent/guardian.
